Sustainable September 2008 / Business Events

Saturday, 23 August 2008

WHAT: Eastside Green Keepers, Faces of Sustainable Business

Sustainable September's 2008 program kick-off breakfast showcases dynamic and committed leadership in the green business arena from various industry sectors. An engaging and well-versed moderator will lead the panel discussion followed by a question and answer session. This event offers a great professional learning and networking opportunity to a broad spectrum of professionals and community leaders.

WHO: Moderator, Jim Hutchinson, Manager Local Government and Community Relations, Puget Sound Energy, Bellevue

Jim currently serves on the Redmond Chamber of Commerce Board (Current Chair), Leadership Eastside's Board, and Eastside Business Alliance (Past Chair). "No other Northwest utility is doing more to advance the development of clean, renewable energy than Puget Sound Energy."

1. Trina Carlstrom, Senior Manager, Environmental Sustainability Microsoft, Redmond.

Trina is a 13-year veteran at Microsoft. She spent time in the product groups as a Sr. Product Manager and as part of Microsoft's expanding investment in environmental responsibility. Her environmental roots stem from her bloodline, with her Grandfather founding the Washington chapter of the Nature Conservancy and Audubon Society. She spends her time away from Microsoft volunteering in the community and is an active Sierra Club member.

2. R. Preston Feight, Chief Engineer, Kenworth Truck Company, Kirkland.

Preston a veteran of Kenworth and is newly appointed to this post. This award winning and globally recognized company is a technology and environmental innovator. They are a leader in the integration of diesel-electric hybrid technology. Kenworth Truck Company is the manufacturer of The World's Best™ heavy and medium duty trucks.

3. Kevin Kalberg, President, Mold Solutions Northwest, North Bend.

eQuotes

"If you tell a lie big enough and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. The lie can be maintained only for such time as the State can shield the people from the political, economic and/or military consequences of the lie. It thus becomes vitally important for the State to use all of its powers to repress dissent, for the truth is the mortal enemy of the lie, and thus by extension, the truth is the greatest enemy of the State."

Kevin is President of East King County Chamber of Commerce Legislative Coalition, and Central Washington Built Green Board. His company provides "antimicrobial protection; a critical component of green building and a healthy home". Their products are EPA registered, water-based, and guaranteed to be non-leaching and non-VOC emitting.

4. Grey Lundberg, President, Grey Lundberg Inc, Bellevue. Grey has won both local and national custom green home awards including the Built Green, Green Hammer Award, a Best in American Living Award, and the Golden Nugget. He is Executive Chair of Built Green of King and Snohomish County.

5. Kari Magill, Chief Operating Office, Rowley Properties, Issaquah. A third-generation family business owner, Kari built a LEED-Gold commercial building in downtown Issaquah. She serves on the Executive Board of the Bellevue Chamber of Commerce as Vice-Chair of Current Issues, and Past Chair of the East King County Legislative Coalition.

6. Ameé Quiriconi, President, Squak Mountain Stone, Woodinville. Ameé used crosscut shredder paper that could not be recycled and combined it with other ingredients turning an innovative graduate project into a successful local green business. She was featured in Best in Green Design 2008, Popular Mechanics (March 2008 issue).

WHY: We can all learn from the experiences of leaders that are right in our backyard. The green economy and environment both benefit when we collaborate and share our learnings. No matter your product, service or organization – we all profit when we catch the green wave on the Eastside.
